Welcome to spring in Seattle. As we say here, “April showers bring May showers.” Now, this might seem like a complaint, and the rain does get old and I do complain, but all I have to do is talk with my sister who lives near Fresno to realize how fortunate we are to have so much water. When I talk with her on the phone and tell her about our “rain problem” it sounds like I’m bragging; it’s like having too much money. As you must know, California (especially the southern Central Valley) is in a drought.

I was thinking about my predisposition to gripe. I think it’s hardwired into our brain. Over 500 years ago, our Eighth Patriarch Rennyo Shonin was well aware of this predisposition for gripe and gossip and dealt with it frequently and bluntly in his writings. Please enjoy a few continued on page 2 quotes from his writings:

“If one gazes critically upon others and forgets to look into himself, he will bring tragedy upon himself.”

“The faults of others are easy to see but the faults of our own are difficult to recognize. If one sees that he has a fault, he must realize that the fault must be very grave indeed for him to recognize it himself; thus, he must take steps to correct his fault. Because it is difficult for us to see many of our faults, we should listen to the advice of others.”

“The average person will not tell you unpleasant facts about you to your face but will repeat them behind your back, yet he will become angry should unpleasant things be said behind his back. I do not believe this should be so. If it should be difficult to say something bad to my face, say it behind my back. Say something unpleasant about me. Then I shall learn of my faults and correct them.”

Has human nature changed at all in the last 500 years? I don’t think so, but how many of us can invite others to say bad things about us behind our back. It takes a spiritually poised and confident person, and a very humble person, to invite such criticism. ###

Meals for Orion Center’s Homeless Youths by Mike Teramoto

Volunteers and Meal Coordinators are needed to provide a fresh hot meal to Seattle area homeless youths. We have been supporting YouthCare’s Orion Center by providing a fresh cooked dinner once a month for over 4 years, and we need your support to keep this program going! Thank you to all of you that have helped support this project. But, we need more of you to volunteer. Each month, a group of 6 – 8 people are needed to plan, purchase, prepare, serve and clean-up a meal for roughly 50 homeless youths. It’s really not that large of a challenge, as those that have participated can attest to. Just think what kind of challenges these homeless youths face every day that they are out on our streets. Can’t you spare just a few hours? We’d love to have you join in supporting this great community service project. Please volunteer! You can participate as part of a group, with friends & family, or on your own. We cover the cost of the food. But, we need you to make it happen!

Volunteers and coordinators are needed for the upcoming months of: April, May, June, Sept – Dec. We serve dinner on the 3rd Friday of each month at 6 pm.

Thank you to the following meal coordinators for recent months: Dec - Sam Umeda and the 252 Crew, Jan - Irene Goto and friends, Feb - Shizue Yahata and SBBWA, March - Leonora Clark and friends. Please contact Mike Teramoto (email: mteramoto@yahoo.com or phone: 206-369-5986) to volunteer or for more information.

APRIL BUDDHIST STUDY GROUP

The Buddhist Study Group will forgo their meeting in April and encourage members to attend a special seminar entitled “The Future of Buddhism in America: Insight, Practice and Sectarianism.” on April 12 featuring Dr. Mark Unno and Dr. Jason Wirth (professor of philosophy at Seattle University). The seminar will be held from 9:30am to 12:30pm. Everyone is welcome to stay for brown bag lunch afterward. There is no cost to attend. (see p. 3 of this newsletter.)

Please note there will also be an event held at Seattle University campus from 7 - 9pm on Friday, April 11, entitled “Shinran and Dogen Today”. This will be a public dialogue between Dr. Mark Unno and Dr. Jason Wirth held in Bannan Auditorium.

Upcoming Event Dr. Haneda is coming to town in the first weekend of May and might be able to visit with our study group on that Friday evening. The book selection, as you might have guessed, will be his Dharma Breeze.

THE FUTURE OF AMERICAN BUDDHISM

Insight, Practice and Sectarian Identity

With

Dr. Mark Unno, University of Oregon and
Dr. Jason M. Wirth of Seattle University

Moderated by Rev. Don Castro

Are all Buddhists united by common insights? How do various forms of Buddhism relate and cooperate? What is considered “practice” in Buddhism and do Jodo Shinshu Buddhists have a practice? Insight Meditation is a popular movement in America, but do their insights speak to the needs of all Buddhists? How do various insights help us to live? Is Japanese Buddhism unique and, if so, what are the positives and negatives of this uniqueness? This seminar is a rare and wonderful opportunity to address these and other issues in an open forum with two astute Buddhist teachers of our Northwest region.

Dr. Mark Unno is Head of the Department of Religious Studies at the University of Oregon and Associate Professor of Japanese Buddhism.

Dr. Jason Wirth is Professor of Philosophy at Seattle University teaching (among other subjects) Comparative Philosophy with an emphasis on Mahayana Buddhist Philosophy. He is co-founder of EcoSangha at Seattle University.

Find out more about each of our speakers by entering their name and university in a search engine.

There are too many Seattle Betsuin members to recognize individually, but let me give you a sampling of those involved. Pauline Sakuma spent many hours planning the event and coordinating the hospitality suite. Donna Zumoto oversaw the complex task of registration. Joan Nakano and the moms of our teens worked with Rev. Patti Oshita to take care of feeding all of the young people who participated in the Youth Leadership Training event that coincided with the BCA meeting. Valerie Chun and Jason Yokoyama managed the banquet, including arranging a very entertaining talent show (Rinban, say “day-o!”). Very early on, Susie Taketa worked with Paul Mori and Karry Sakamoto to negotiate our arrangement with the Westin Bellevue. And, over 30 of our members drove more than 60 car trips between SeaTac and the Bellevue Westin transporting representatives and ministers. ###
JR.YBA Spring Retreat

Seattle Buddhist Church JR YBA held a Spring Retreat on March 8-9, at the Temple. The purpose of the retreat was to ‘bond’ and get to know each other better plus get to know others from neighboring Temples. The participants were from Seattle and Tacoma. During the retreat, we played BINGO with the Wisteria View residents, played icebreaker games, and played a lot of volleyball and basketball. We even had a creative “Buddhist craft” session and watched a movie. Thanks to Ron, Steph, Mrs. Luke, Mrs. Taketa, and Mrs. Tosaya for helping cook and for staying the night. - Submitted by Alex S and SO

Dharma School submitted by Joyce Tsuji

The Dharma school would like to thank all the families and friends who helped out with the Salmon Dinner Spring Fundraiser for the Betsuin.

1st/2nd grade Our students are always thinking, and full of good ideas.

We discussed the Eightfold path and how it might be useful at the Olympics for both athletes and spectators. How Right Conduct, Right Speech, Right View basically most of them could all be used to create a wonderful event for everyone present. Then we made our own Olympic torch mosaic from paper. We celebrated girl’s day by discussing the many traditions associated with it and making doll bookmark/magnets. We continued our Eightfold path discussion by reading the book Petey the Peanut Man about a guy trying to find his way to a job that would be the best fit, or Right Livelihood. Finally as we observed the Ohigan holiday we talked about the Dana Paramita and how we can give without having to use money, like smiles, hugs, or help. ###

Much appreciation to all members who gave assistance to the Nat’l Buddhist Council Meeting. We provided refreshments of rice specialties, manju, mochi, and appetizers, transportation for the guests, and worked the registration table during the four day meeting. Your support has been very much acknowledged by our meeting organizers, ministers, and temple heads. We are grateful for Ritsuko Kawahara, Kinue Kuwahara, and Shizue Yahata for their skilled leadership.

New Membership Service & Luncheon: Each year at this time, we seek new members to join our organization, as we plan for our New Membership Installation Service to be held on April 27. New members would be beneficial as we have many exciting events, goals, and responsibilities in the next few years, on a local, NW District, and Federation BWA level.

We look forward to a FBWA Representatives’ Meeting in 2015, and a FBWA Conference, the NW District BWA is hosting in 2016. We can work and learn together as we carry out our objectives. Our goal is to accomplish our goals while making new friendships.

Breakfast for Lunch Fundraiser: Our second annual breakfast will be served during lunch on Sunday, May 18. Eggs, sausages, waffles, pancakes, miso shiru, tsukemono and more are on the menu. The tickets are $10.00 and will be on sale soon. Join us for Breakfast for Lunch following the Gotan-e Service.

World BWA Convention: The registration process for the World Convention to be held on May 30-31, 2015 in Calgary Alberta, Canada has started. The Preliminary Survey was due last month. Final registration and hotel reservations are due before November 15, 2014, a year prior to the convention. Canadian tours to accompany the convention are available. Another informational World Convention meeting will be announced soon. For information and registration paperwork, see Machiko Wada and Joyce Kato.

Omigaki: Ten temple members polished and learned the art of Omigaki on March 31. Sonoe and Haruso Taketa, who have been caring of the shiny objects for many years, taught the polishing of brass objects in the naijin. It was nice to see the beautiful items newly polished for another year.

Special “Town Hall” Dharma Exchange
by Leonora Clarke March 9 - President Yukio Morikubo was the guest speaker at a special "town hall meeting" Dharma Exchange to discuss the future of our Temple. He gave an inspiring presentation emphasizing the following points;

1. Our facilities and membership are aging. Now is the time for action - to plan for the future.

2. Priorities (followed by lead)
   a. Create a sustainable staffing/volunteer model - Yukio Morikubo
   b. Modernize communications/membership - Calvin Terada and Tyler Moriguchi
   c. Provide great programming and educational opportunities - Alan Hoshino
   d. Update our facilities - Art Kozai/Craig Nakano/Kevin Yokoyama
   e. Secure our financial future - Howard Luke and Mike Teramoto

3. The planning group is looking for quick wins and member participation, so please let Yukio know of your ideas.

This meeting was just the beginning of the process. At this point, they are working on fact finding and diagnosis. Eventually, they hope to develop a plan for the next few years as well as solidify our long term goals. In the coming months keep your eyes open for a series of "town hall meetings" which will be held to gather input from members and give updates on how things are progressing.

EDITOR’S NOTE: NEXT TOWN HALL IS APRIL 20, 11:00am.

Musical Notes
My apologies for the error in the March newsletter: Trevor Y was the pianist for Scout Sunday with Aaron R. On March 9, Camp Fire musician were flutists Michelle M-L and Alina B. Taryn C on saxophone and Kayla B on piano. Nice job Scouts and Camp Fire girls!

For opening service of the BCA national council meeting in Bellevue on February 28, 11 members of the Seattle Betsuin choir joined singers and taiko players from the NW district to participate in Rev. Dennis Fujimoto’s Gatha Project with Donna Sasaki from Tacoma on keyboard. The following afternoon for closing service, Rosie Y (violin) and I were fortunate to have Rev. Harry Bridge from Oakland Buddhist Church join us on bass guitar for Ondokusan II for closing service. Thank you to Donna Zumoto for coordinating taiko instruments and evening performance also.

The Betsuin choir will sing before Hanamatsuri service during kambutsu (offering of sweet tea). The Bodhi Ensemble will provide service music for Earth Day on April 20. Thank you also to Mas Tamekuni for helping to cover services this spring with ukulele accompaniment. – Kemi N
Notes on Dharma Exchange

2/23/14 - The discussion concerned the crow population in Tokyo specifically and in other areas. The mission of the crow patrol in Tokyo is to destroy the nests. However, the crows are so smart they build an easy to find nest as well as one they will use. Crows are known to drop bones on streets to be run over by cars. They also drop clams that break on impact. A participant commented that some bears in Canada know how to open car doors. . .Rev. Dr. Jeff Wilson was the keynote speaker at the NW Buddhist Convention, and Rosalie asked about Shingin. Sensei said to "relax, trust and thank" as being the Jodo Shinshu way of living. His book, "Buddhism of the Heart" admonishes us to be comfortable in uncomfortable situations. Tetsu summed it up with "Sono mama," which means "come as you are." Rev. Kenneth Tanaka's book, "Ocean," is relevant to those of high school age. . .Irene M. was happy to see so many young people at the Northwest Buddhist Convention. She suggested changing the date of the NW Buddhist Convention to be in compliance with the weather in the Northwest so that more Northwesterners might attend. Kats recommended presenting the idea to the upcoming National Council meeting. . .It was recommended that we consider participating in the informal Book Study Group at the Betsuin, which has been meeting for a few years on Sat., 9:30am. Irene G. said it was not necessary to buy or even to read the book in order to attend. Some books to consider: "The Monk's Wife" by Ruth Tabrah, concerning Shinran's wife, "Dharma Breeze" by Rev. Dr. Nobuo Haneda, "The Heart of Understanding" by Thich Nat Hanh, "Ethics of Enlightenment" by Rev. Ronald Y. Nakasone, and "Anshu - Dark Sorrow" by Juliet Kono.

3/2/14 Rev. Jim Warrick headed the DX, and indicated the business part of the National Council meeting addressing the budget was probably the most important aspect of the meeting. . .We discussed Arinomama (anomama is more colloquial) which is described as the idea of suchness. . .At the National Council meeting in Bellevue the minister's robes were of different colors -- green, brown, etc., not necessarily basic black. . .Some of the ministers remained in the area after the meeting and attended today's service and DX at the Betsuin. Jim sensei asked Rev. Akahoshi for comments. Sensei said he had been a lay speaker for many years before Tokudo and Kyoshi ordination. Also, until a new minister was in place at a given temple he substituted. As a Sanseki he feels he is Japanese American; he considers his sons to be "American Japanese," due to their cultural exposure. Sensei feels we need to "Americanize" Jodo Shinshu for everyone by using a more inclusive language for the benefit of Japanese Americans, American Japanese and others on a spiritual path. The turnovers for retreats in his San Diego temple were an indication to him that people are responsive to such an idea. He commented that the Isssei were satisfied with what they had and did not complain about what they did not have. Sensei said, "As Jodo Shinshu Buddhists we receive not achieve."

In gassho, Pat Bobrow

3/9/14 President Yukio Morikubo and Communications Director Calvin Terada presented a video/slide presentation on the history of the Seattle Buddhist Church. They explained future challenges and encouraged feedback and volunteerism. Their goal is to create better communication. Attendees appreciated their presentation. See "Town Hall" by Leonora Clarke on page 6. -IHG

3/16/14 Minster's Assistants Irene Goto and Leonora Clarke led. There was some discussion about the on-going Malaysian Air 370 ordeal. Irene related her observation of someone struggling against dying and feelings of abandonment. Irene announced that she is pursuing tokudo ordination. Yuki Amano, a student from Sendai hosted by the Kashimas, explained her mission to become a nurse and organizer to help those in need after experiencing the disaster in nearby Fukushima on 3.11.11. -IHG
